Introduction

1. By its resolution 64/301, the General Assembly decided to establish, at its sixty-fifth session, an ad hoc working group on the revitalization of the General Assembly, open to all Member States:

(a) To identify further ways to enhance the role, authority, effectiveness and efficiency of the Assembly, inter alia, by building on previous resolutions and evaluating the status of their implementation;

(b) To submit a report thereon to the Assembly at its sixty-fifth session.

2. In the same resolution, the General Assembly also decided that the Ad Hoc Working Group, at the sixty-fifth session, should undertake a comprehensive review of the inventory contained in the annex to the report of the Ad Hoc Working Group submitted at the sixty-third session (A/63/959), and requested the Secretary-General to submit an update of the provisions of the Assembly resolutions on revitalization addressed to the Secretariat for implementation that had not yet been implemented, with an indication of the constraints and reasons that were behind any lack of implementation, for further consideration by the Ad Hoc Working Group.

3. The present update report is submitted pursuant to that resolution.

H.	Provisions related to public relations activities
23.	60/286, annex, para. 16	Encourages the Presidents of the General Assembly to increase their public visibility, including through enhanced contacts with representatives of the media and civil society, thus promoting the activities of the Assembly, and encourages the Secretary-General to continue the practice of providing to the Office of the President of the General Assembly a Spokesperson for the President of the Assembly and an assistant to the Spokesperson	President of the General Assembly/ Secretary-General	Ongoing provision. Since the sixtieth session, for example, the Presidents of the General Assembly, together with the Chairs of the Main Committees, have periodically briefed representatives of civil society on the programme of work of the Assembly at its current sessions (A/61/483, p. 20, and A/62/608, p. 15). No assistant to the Spokesperson for the President of the General Assembly has been provided since January 2008	Department of Public Information has organized periodic press conferences by the President of the General Assembly, both to enhance contact with the media and to increase the visibility of the Assembly and its work. Further, the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management has facilitated the organization of interactive hearings with representatives of civil society before major conferences, summits and other high-level meetings, as mandated, for the same purposes. The Department for General Assembly and Conference Management has also organized informal plenary meetings of the General Assembly to hear periodic briefings by the President of the General Assembly and the Secretary-General. The Department for General Assembly and Conference Management regularly briefs the media on the General Assembly's elections and programme of work. In addition, the Secretary-General has been reporting to the Assembly, through the Committee on
